

Kite Building Workshop

Kite Workshop June 25, 2017

Timings -: 12:30 PM to 5:00 PM.

Flying and building Kites are two wonderful ways to help bring people together. They can be the channels for learning and communication between different ages and different cultures. Realzim eSociety will be conducting a kite building workshop supporting communities and neighborhood at the Chinese Cultural center. The location based SMART (safe, meaningful, accountable, relevant & trusted) Engagement Network enables purposeful connections, creating opportunities for individuals to make a difference where they live, work and play!

Come join us to create your own simple and easy-to-fly kites. There are also decorating supplies provided to add a personal touch to your kite. You can bring your own supplies if you prefer.

Kite Festival

Kite Festival July 1, 2017

Timings -: 12:30 PM to 2:30 PM

Come celebrate the Canada 150 day with Realzim eSociety and give flight to your ideas!

Realzim eSociety is back again for the Second Annual Calgary Kite Festival celebrating the Canada 150 anniversary. Come join us for a fun filled day with your entire family to foster multicultural spirit of Calgary. With your participation, let's make Calgary – one of the best cities in the world, the best city “for” the world!

Objectives of the Calgary Kite Festival

- Bringing communities together for things that really matter!
- Supporting communities and neighborhoods with real people for purposeful connections
- Creating opportunities for individuals to make a difference in where they live, work, and play
- Foster citizen engagement and participation to make a tangible difference in Calgary

- Ability to learn more about volunteering or contributing to current and future initiatives of giving back to the community:
- Enabling Senior Citizens of our city to engage in fun activities
- Enabling our youth “ to do more with life”
- Opportunities to socialize, do business, volunteer, extend a helping hand, mentor, and much more...For more information visit www.realzim.com
